Leslie H. Joyner is an associate attorney whose practice focuses on complex litigation in federal and state courts, including wage and hour violations, consumer rights, employment class actions and consumer class actions.

Prior to joining Schneider Wallace Cottrell Konecky LLP, Ms. Joyner worked as an associate at Marlin Saltzman, where she was pivotal in obtaining certification in numerous actions and played an integral role in recovering millions of dollars in payments to class members. Ms. Joyner also worked as a member of the Los Angeles City Attorney's Complex Litigation Division where her practice included active involvement in the prosecution of major financial institutions and national corporations engaged in fraud and other unlawful conduct against California consumers.

Ms. Joyner received her J.D. from Lewis & Clark Law School. During law school, she worked as a certified law student in the Criminal Division of the Office of the Los Angeles City Attorney. She is admitted to practice before all state courts and California as well as the United States District Courts for the Central, Eastern, Northern and Southern districts and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.
