Ryan Quadrel is a Senior Associate at Schneider Wallace Cottrell Konecky LLP. Ryan's practice focuses on wage and hour class actions and PAGA claims. He has extensive experience litigating complex civil cases and individual employment claims of discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination and retaliation.

Ryan earned his J.D. from Touro University Law Center and his B.A. in Cultural Anthropology from the State University of New York, New Paltz.

During law school, Ryan was a judicial intern for the Honorable Jeffrey Arlen Spinner of the New York Supreme Court. He served as an Americorps VISTA at a workforce youth development program in New York City, and as a law intern in clinics where he represented senior citizens and persons in economic distress following the 2008 financial crisis.

Ryan is admitted to practice before all state courts in California and the United States District Courts for the Southern and Central Districts of California. He strives to continue achieving excellent results for clients at trial, arbitration, mediation and administrative actions.
